

Eternal Home

The house of God is not about buildings and things; it's about the people, the body of all believers, who are the church.

"I am asking God for one thing, only one thing: To live with him in his house my whole life long. I'll contemplate His beauty; I'll study at His feet. That's the only quiet, secure place in a noisy world" (Ps 27:4 MESS).

There is a dynamic life that is only found within the kingdom, when the "lovers of God" come together in unity to become the church--the glorious, unblemished, whole, beautiful bride for who the King is returning.

Collectively, we come together to create a structure that is made up of the powerful testimonies of His people.

The intimacy and powerful presence of God in corporate worship is becoming stronger and stronger.

In God's house there is room for everyone of us to find a place to serve, to flourish, and to grow in Him.

"Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust in the name of the Lord our God" (Ps 20:7).

God will NEVER let you down. Don't fear the "what ifs" of serving in the church, the things you may have to die to.

Start to dream about the "what could be's" if you actually sowed your life into something bigger than yourself!

Remember, There Is Room for Everyone

"I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full" (John 10:10).

In God's house there is room for everyone of us to find a place to serve, to flourish, and to grow in Him.

There is room for your gift and for everyone else's in God's house.

You Can't Build on a Foundation of Doubt, Fear, or Unbelief.

God puts people in authority over you, and it's your role to honor and serve without grumbling or feeling like you are missing out.

When you are working through the principle of being "faithful in little" (Luke 16:10), you need to love the "little" part.

Serving the Lord's house is a heart decision.

*Nehemiah 10:39

Don't Fight the Silent Years

*Luke 2:51-52

*1 Peter 5:5-7

If you are faithful with what belongs to somebody else, God will give you your own. The testing ground is when you are being a loyal steward over what belongs to someone else.

In the great house of God, remember, there is a time when all things will come together for His purpose, but there is also a way of obedience that brings it about!

Greatness Begins with Wholeheartedness

A whole hearted approach to service releases God's hand.

God's hand is limited when your heart is misdirected.

Ask God to Teach You to Love His House

Ask God to increase your ability to love what He loves and to love establishing His kingdom through building His great house.

"Be shepherds of the church of God, which he bought with his own blood" (Acts 20:28).

God's House is a place where:

Find God's Presence

Sense Family Love

Develop Leadership Skills

Sow into the Kingdom

Children Flourish

See God's Gift Released in Your life

Develop Relationship

Let your thirst for His love and His purposes be unquenchable.

Live extravagantly for Him so that the lost may know Him and so that the world will be drawn to the irresistible presence of the King.

Think about the house of God in which you are planted and consider what you can offer to the Lord's banquet table.
